(CONDENSED)

Jason Therrien is a founder, investor, board member and civic leader. He's started several businesses since 1997, including thunder::tech, an integrated marketing agency that accelerates brands to innovate and win in a connected world. Today, that one-man shop has grown into a 40+ person agency servicing clients coast to coast and internationally, specializing in brand building, digital transformation and communication strategies.

As the president of thunder::tech, Therrien oversees the growth and expansion of the integrated marketing agency. He works with the Account Services Team to provide strategic planning and counsel for clients. His specialties include developing strategy for integrated and digital marketing, public relations and communications for a variety of clients ranging from mid-market to Fortune 500 companies. Some of these notable clients include the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Henkel, the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame, The Kresge Foundation, Sexy Hair, the Cleveland Clinic and PPG Industries.
